

The no-call list rules proposed by the Consumer Banking Assn is not in the interest of the consumer - it is in the interest of business. Let the states enact their own rules or adopt a strong Federal bill. If I want to know about a product, I'll call them. Thanks